

0830/1130/1630:

Welcome from Professor Evelyn Goh (ANU, from Canberra) and introductions of participants

0900/1200/1700:

Panel A: The Economic-Security Nexus in Asian Security Research

CHAIR: Professor David C. Kang (USC, from LA)

- Ronan Tse-Min FU (USC, from Canberra), ‘Measuring threat perception: theory and a case study of Taiwan’
- Angela POH (NTU, from Singapore), ‘China’s ambiguous sanctions: eight “classic cases” revisited’
- Darren LIM & Victor FERGUSON (ANU, from Canberra), ‘The political economy of economic coercion: China’s retaliation against South Korea over THAAD’

1015/1315/1815: Break

1030/1330/1830: Panel B: The Domestic Drivers of Foreign Policy in Asian Security Research CHAIR: Professor Ralf Emmers (NTU, from Singapore)

- Xinru MA (USC, from Canberra), ‘Playing “chicken” with firecrackers: when do nationalist protests serve as credible signals in international crisis bargaining?’
- Yusuke ISHIHARA (ANU, from Tokyo), ‘Japan’s renegotiation of the postwar bargain in the 1970s’
- HOO Tiang Boon (NTU, from Singapore), ‘The pursuit of identity: global identity formation and Xi’s China’

1145/1445/1945: Close